

PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE DEFENDS HIMSELF IN HOUSE

Successful Against 1st
Serious Attack Made Against His Administration

ASQUITH LEADS CRITICS

London, Nov. 19.—Premier Lloyd George defended himself in the house of commons this afternoon against the first serious attack his administration has faced; so far as the commons is concerned his defense seemed highly successful; the prime minister's admirers call it a triumph.

The attack was focused upon two points—the character of the war council in Paris and the condemnation of the allies' past strategy which he pronounced in his Paris speech.

Ex-Premier Asquith was spokesman for the opposition. His speech was not in the tone of an attack, but a sharp criticism of the new plan for allied control of the war and a vindication of his own government for which he remarked that he himself and the present premier had each had his particular share of responsibility. It was keyed in a much milder strain than the first hostile outburst from the newspapers and sections of the liberal and conservative parties which greeted the premier on his return home. The Welsh leader's reply was a characteristic fighting speech of the type which has made him famous. There was no thought of retraction for anything he had said or done, no hint of an apologetic strain which some expected for what had been called the Paris indiscretions. There were some passages which would have made school parliamentarians, except in Gladstonian traditions, or statesmen courtsey wince, as when he said the attacks made him feel as if he were crossing the channel in a storm on a small destroyer. But Mr. Lloyd George always brings something of the touch of the stump speaker into the commons, and this gives him a stronger appeal to the greater audience outside.

The entire cabinet sat beside him on the front bench and a packed silent house of commons, peers and others fortunate enough to obtain gallery seats bent forward to catch every word. The man whose mantle he had assumed faced him across a space of a few feet with a gilded mace between them. Although they addressed each other deferentially as "My Honorable Friend" sentences passed, which to those who know recent history, seemed meant to stab.

Basis for Asquith's Criticism

Mr. Asquith's criticism was based on two grounds: that the new war council would conflict with the general staff and there would be two separate military advisory bodies and the omission of the navy from membership. He also questioned how such a council could have averted the course of events in Serbia, Roumania, Russia and Italy and whether the Paris speech did not mean that the sacrifices of the British army had been largely misdirected and in vain.

The premier argued that the new body would co-ordinate the work of the various staffs whereas under the old arrangement the general staff had met together only once a year to settle the strategy of the allies for battle fronts extending over thousands of miles. He announced that Lord Kitchener had recommended such a council in January, 1915, and that the general staff had proposed it in July of this year.

Dwelling on the changes that the new arrangement was designed to take control of the operations from the hands of the military and put them in the hands of politicians, he declared that he had only twice over ridden his military advisors, when he launched his programme for making more guns than they said were needed and when he placed control of the building of railways behind the lines in the hands of a civilian Sir Eric Geddes and both decisions had proved successful. The greater part of the premier's speech was a defence of the criticisms. What he said at Paris he had said deliberately to arouse public opinion and he had done it. He had seen too many resolves for closer allied co-operation come to nothing.

The premier's speech closed in an optimistic strain concerning the prospects of victory. He now had no fear of the menace of submarines, five of which "pests of the sea" had been destroyed on Saturday.

AMERICAN TROOPS
PREPARE FOR WINTER

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN France, Nov. 19.—(By the Associated Press)—Preparations for winter were begun actively today by the American troops. Various units have been ordered to cease drills temporarily on account of this work. The principal tasks are found in the towns, where the soldiers are billeted in buildings which are draughty and in some cases damp. The weather has been cold and wet for the last few weeks, and the troops welcome the opportunity to provide for their own comfort.

Artillery firing on the sector continues more active.

AMBASSADOR REPORTS ALL AMERICANS SAFE

Word Received from Petrograd—About 200 Americans in Russian Capital.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Messages to the state department from Ambassador Francis at Petrograd and Consul General Summers at Moscow, dated last Friday and Saturday and received today said all Americans in principal Russian cities were safe and conditions quiet but still chaotic.

Ambassador Francis reported he had obtained transportation from Petrograd to Harbin for Americans who wished to depart. He recommended that all unattached women and men accompanied by women and children leave. Officials here estimated there were about 200 Americans in Petrograd.

No suggestion was made of moving the Americans from Moscow, although the fighting in that city appeared to have been more general and bloody than in Petrograd. Many Americans were in the Hotel Metropol.

The ambassador's despatch said the Petrograd duma had not recognized the Lenin-Trotsky faction and that many government departments were closed, others operating under subordinates.

A few Bolshevik newspapers appeared at intervals with frequent changes of names and banks were open part of the time. Conditions in Moscow, Consul General Summers' despatch of Nov. 17, said, had somewhat improved after a week of fighting. The Maximalists had taken over the government.

Officials at the Russian embassy said today they had received no late news but that mention in press dispatches of Captain Pavloff, Social Democrat workers leader as being at the head of the troops opposing the Bolsheviks was encouraging as indicating one of the strongest factors of the opposition had gone over to the moderates.

The prediction was made that the Bolsheviks would be overthrown by a military victory or fall by internal dissension owing to the evident incapacity of the radical leaders to obtain the reforms embodied in their program.

ASKED TO REPEAL
SECTION OF TAX LAW

Organization of Publishers Protest Against Increasing of Postal Rates.

New York, Nov. 19.—Congress was asked to repeal the section of the war tax law increasing postage rates on the second class mail matter in resolutions adopted at a meeting here of representatives of the Representatives Club an organization of publishers. The rates which are to go into effect next July were characterized in the resolution as "destructive of one of the greatest educational and industrial factors in the country."

"With the throttling of the magazines by this law the resolutions continue, the industrial benefits of the manufacturing interests through the advertising and selling opportunities will also be disastrously affected."

John Adams Thayer, secretary of the Periodical Publishers' association which includes publications having a combined circulation of about 25,000,000 said the law will so restrict circulation the government will suffer loss in postal incomes. He declared publishers are willing to agree to any proper increase but see only disaster in present rate increase.

Y. M. C. A. WAR FUND CAMPAIGN DRIVE IS SUCCESS

Thirty-five Million Dollars or More Assured
from Figures Received Monday Night

LAST REPORT WEDNESDAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The war fund of $35,000,000 with which the Young Men's Christian Association will provide care and comfort for the soldiers and sailors of America and their allies has been raised, it was announced here tonight, by George W. Perkins, chairman of the finance committee of the war work council.

While final figures will not be available before Wednesday Mr. Perkins stated that reports from various parts of the country left no doubt that the full amount and probably more had been contributed. The campaign was begun a week ago and extended through the nation.

"The reports received tonight from every state in the country," said a statement issued by A. H. Whiteford, director of the campaign, "indicate that the campaign is a great success. Many states have announced their intention of raising an amount larger than their allotment."

It is clearly understood that the principal limitation in the work in the association among the enlisted men has been largely a lack of funds. The larger the fund the more efficient and more extended will be the work as represented by the red triangle.

Chicago reported tonight that it had raised $2,700,000. Detroit wired its contributions would be at least $719,000.

"Although the campaign closed officially at midnight announcement was made that it will continue all week in Georgia and for several days in parts of Tennessee."

Mrs. Arthur Curtis James, national chairman of the woman's committee which has been active in the campaign stated that the organization would continue to receive contributions until the end of November. Efforts would be continued, she said, to reach many wealthy New York women who are absent from the city, as well as to obtain small donations.

The fifth $100,000 contribution thru this committee was announced. This was made by Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

Former President Taft tonight sent a congratulatory telegram to Dr. John R. Mott, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., national council on the success of the drive.

Among the larger subscriptions reported here today were, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, $250,000.

Statet Overseas Subscribes Quota.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—Illinois over-subscribed its quota to the army Y. M. C. A. by $250,000, contributing a total of $4,250,000. Chicago subscribed $2,046,852 which was $46,000 more than the quota. It was estimated tonight that the central department consisting of fifteen states with headquarters in Chicago would contribute $20,000,000.

Springfield's Record.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 19.—The Springfield Y. M. C. A. war fund, including the counties of Sangamon, Macon, Menard and Logan ended its week's campaign today at noon with its quota over subscribed by approximately $5,000.

The district's quota was $50,000. Of the total of $55,962 reported the city of Springfield contributed $20,131.

War News Summarized

While the Italians are holding the middle and lower reaches of the Piave river successfully against the Teutonic allied invaders and even have thrown back the greater portion of those who crossed the stream and gained the Western bank the enemy is trying with strong forces in the north to beat back the troops of General Diaz, pierce the line and force a retirement westward from the river from the region of Vedor to the Adriatic sea. In this endeavor the invaders have captured several important points of vantage, notably the village of Quero and Montecornelle—and have compelled the Italians under a heavy bombardment to evacuate their strongly fortified position on Monte Tomba, almost the last stronghold barring the way to the northern edge of the Venetian plains.

These captures are reported by the German war office, but the admission had been made previously by Rome that the enemy was attacking in this region with heavy effective doubtless among them reinforcements which it had been known for several weeks they were hurrying southward. The Germans announced also the taking of 1,100 prisoners during the fighting. Nothing as yet has been heard of the arrival of British and French reinforcements to aid the Italians in holding their line, but the "few days" it was announced last week would have to elapse before they could reach the front have passed and it is not improbable that soon the front in the north will perceptibly stiffen and bring to an end the inroads of the enemy.

All the enemy forces which last week crossed the river Piave near Zenson have been swept clear of the western bank in a brilliant attack by the Italians. Large numbers of them met death along the eastern bank or were drowned in their hurried attempt to ford the stream. Others were bayoneted or forced to surrender and it was only a small portion of the original force that was able to make their way to safety.

No infantry actions of importance have taken place along the western front in Belgium and France but indications point to another attack by Field Marshal Haig in Flanders and possibly by General Petain's forces near Verdun.

On both sectors of the front heavy bombardments are in progress—that in Flanders extending from the region of Passchendaele on past the French trenches on the British left and up to the Belgium coast.

While the Bolshevik elements in Russia are threatening to make a peace on their own terms and thenceforth remain neutral in the war despatches from Petrograd are that the German emperor had made it known he will negotiate for peace only with the successor to the imperial Russian government or with the Russian constituent assembly.

MEXICAN CITY IS ALMOST DESERTED

Less Than 200 Men Garrison Ojinaga—Villa Moves Headquarters

Presido, Texas, Nov. 19.—Ojinaga was almost deserted today less than 200 men garrisoning that town across the Rio Grande river from here.

Villa is believed to have moved his headquarters away from the place and to have left it in command of Portorrio Ornelas.

Unconfirmed rumors of a battle up the Conchos river from Ojinaga and also of a fight near Chichillo Pasada sixty miles from Ojinaga, between Villa's column and the federal forces of General Hernandez have been brought here. Andres Garcia, inspector general of Mexican consulates in the United States spent the night here to confer with consul Cosme Benzo Echea, regarding the situation on this part of the border.

SHIP SAVED FROM "SUB"
BY CAPTAIN'S STRATEGY

AN ATLANTIC PORT, Nov. 19.—Fires kindled on the hatches of an American freighter saved it from submarine attack recently, according to officers of the steamer, which arrived here yesterday.

Shortly after leaving European port a U-boat was observed approaching. The captain ordered small blazes made on the hatches, using material almost non-combustible but which produced heavy smoke.

When the submarine came close the steamer was stopped, the captain told the U-boat commander he carried explosive and that on account of the fire he was about to abandon ship. The submarine immediately departed, its commander evidently believing an explosion was imminent.

NEW RESTRICTIONS TO BE IMPOSED ON ALIEN ENEMIES

Will Enable the Government to Keep Germans in U. S. Under Constant Surveillance

BAN ON WATER TRAVEL

Washington, Nov. 19.—Drastic regulations to enable government agents to keep the thousands of Germans in the United States under constant surveillance and curb the treasonable activities of a few, will be promulgated in several days by Attorney General Gregory to make effective the proclamation issued today by President Wilson imposing restrictions on free movement of alien enemies. By means of the new regulations the department of justice expects to be able to round up a number of Germans who are believed to have directed the organization campaigns of sabotage and propaganda to embarrass the United States in the war.

Under the proclamation unnaturalized male Germans above the age of 14 are required to register with the police or some other authority to be designated by the attorney general. In addition they must report periodically to some official if they attorney general so orders. They may not travel in the United States without a permit and may not approach within 100 yards of any wharf, pier, dock, warehouse, shed, elevator, storage house, railroad terminal, or other establishment which the attorney general may designate. They are forbidden to travel on the ocean, great lakes or any river or waterway, either in public vessels or in their own private boats. They may not enter or reside in the District of Columbia or Panama Canal zone and are not permitted to make aerial flights in balloons or airplane.

The new order applies to Germans, males of 14 years and up, living within the United States, Philippines, Porto Rico, Alaska and other possessions and territories but does not affect the subjects of Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria. It is effective immediately, but the registration and licensing for traveling will not be put into full effect for a few days.

In administering the new regulations the department of justice will abide by the government's established policy of annoying law-abiding Germans as little as possible and the full pressure of the restrictions will be imposed only on Germans suspected of having evil designs against the United States.

One of the most important features of the president's proclamation in the opinion of the department of justice officials is the forbidding of water travel to enemies. Much of the damage to docks and piers is known to have been done by German agents traveling in motor boats.

Germans without evil intent officials believe will comply willingly with the terms of the new restrictions in the knowledge that similar restrictions are imposed on alien enemies by other warring nations. Those who disobey, however, will place themselves open to suspicion immediately, and the government will exercise its privilege of internment for war any who fail voluntarily to comply.

Closing of the District of Columbia was urged by government agents as one means of lessening the traffic in valuable war information which is believed to have its most important center in the capital. The few scores of Germans not naturalized will be forced to move out.

Are you willing to diet for your country, asks Hoover.

Why should Secretary Tumulty
deem it necessary to publicly deny
that he is in jail for treason?

Study the many things that modern life has made us think necessities
and see how many you can live without.

The people of Illinois will be glad to hear the statement that there will be no more waste of car loads of food in Chicago. But why should food be permitted to freeze in transit? The railroad companies have been able to perfect refrigerator cars
in the summer time keep foods
from freezing. It seems that the government is now interesting itself
in this matter and a solution may be looked for.

WE SHOULD BE PROUD.

"Illinois now has a larger Red Cross membership than any state in the union. On the basis of population, this state has double the Red Cross membership of New York. One sixth of the entire membership of the American Red Cross is enrolled in Illinois, which has passed the 900,000 mark."

This announcement which will
thrill every Illinois citizen with pride
in his home state was made by W.
D. Thurber, director of the Illinois membership for the Red Cross.

PAY WAR TAX.

Some people have gained the impression that the levy of a tax on theater tickets is a move by the government to discourage theater going.
Some people believe because the government has caused an extra charge
on theater tickets, it frowns upon theaters.

Such is far, far from the case.
The United States government does not frown upon amusements. The United States favors amusements, considers them necessary. Go to the theater. Pay your tax on your tickets. You are not opposing the government's plan, but are aiding it.
Every time you pay war tax on a theater ticket you are helping the government finance the war.

A REAL WHEATLESS DAY.

Inquiry as to the value of a wheat-
less day that admitted the use of

wheat in all forms other than white
flour was followed by prompt action.
We are now to have a real wheat-
less day, and the precious grain is to be wholly banished, with the loyal
co-operation of the public, on Wednesday of each week. This decision is wise, not merely because it will make the saving plan vastly more effective, but because it will give us the sense of honesty and reality that strengthens morale. Nothing is more demoralizing to individuals or communities than self-deception.
Getting by a so-called wheatless day
with whole wheat instead of white flour was flimflamming.

WE ARE PROUD.

The successful closing of the Army
Y campaign for money has brought out very distinctly two types of citizens we have "in our midst." One of these types is that of the man who is overwhelmed with the sense
of his own responsibility, and his own needs of serving his country
and of compensating in some degree
for the material prosperity and the spiritual and personal freedom which he enjoys as a citizen of the world's greatest free country. He is ready to serve wherever he can. He would enlist if he could. He gives to public and patriotic causes. He thinks,
talks and acts for his government in
its day of peril.

The other type is that of the man
who is overwhelmed with the feeling that his personal fortunes are to be disturbed by the war. He grumbles because of increased taxation. He turns the hard-working solicitors
for patriotic causes rudely from his door. He brings narrow, petty, personal objections to every purpose
which should demand his support.
He cares not a whit save that his own puny soul and his own income
may be saved in its entirety when peace comes.

Fortunately, the representatives of the second type are but few, and of the first very many. Jacksonville and Morgan county has again reason to be proud of the generous people
who seem always ready to give and give liberally according to their means to every worthy cause. They are too proud of their achievement
to worry over the few tight ones.

WAR SAVING CERTIFICATES.

New York World: The United States treasury department has been wisely advised as to methods of selling the war savings certificates authorized by congress. Instead of being offered at the par of $5 with interest payable at certain intervals,
they will be redeemed at par after
five years and sold at a discount
equal to the accumulating interest
compounded quarterly at 4 per cent
to Jan. 1, 1923.

These certificates or stamps will be placed on sale early next month
and will cost $4.12 each up to Feb.
1 next. Then the price will rise by one cent a month. At the same time
what are called thrift stamps will be offered at 25 cents each without interest, but convertible at all times
into war savings certificates or stamps, which in turn are convertible into $100 certificates at the current discount price. Thus sixteen thrift stamps plus 12 cents will buy
a war savings stamp during the next two months, and this stamp will be good for $5 by Jan. 1, 1923. Similarly twenty savings stamps, or $82.40, will buy a certificate bringing $100 at the end of a five-year period.

This is a novelty in American public finance. That it will appeal to the people as strongly as a similar plan in war loans has to the English
public there can be little question.
The person paying $4.12 for what will be $5 later on will be more disposed to keep it than if he had paid $5 with a few cents in interest to collect at intervals. Germany has appealed to the 1-mark or 24-cents
investor in its regular war loans.

Rippling Rhymes
By WALT MASON

Sportsmanlike
When winter's knocking at the door it's well to have a goodly store
of coal and hams and cheese, to have supplies of shoes and cloaks
and prunes and hay and artichokes,
and other things like these. But let us not behave like swine, let no
gent matter. "So I dine, I care not who may starve; I care not who may cry for bread, whose kids may hungry go to bed, so I have roasts
to carve." Let no gent mask in warmth and ease, and say, "I care
not who may freeze, since I have wood and coal; while I enjoy the best of luck I do not care a phoney

duck who may be in the hole."
We're running short of coal and sate, and doubtless some unlucky
skate will find his shanty cold, the while his porkish neighbor grins because his cellars and his bins have all the coal they'll hold. They say we'll soon be short of spuds and
people straightway tear their duds
to buy up all in sight; it may be prudent thus to reach for all the tubers on the beach, but is it kind or right? To think of others is a plan that should appeal to every man, a system high and fine; let's keep the common good in sight; let's not be Dorcas, Chester White or Poland
China swine.

VIRGINIA MAN HURT

BY SPRINGFIELD MOTORIST

Robert Hall of Virginia was somewhat painfully injured in Springfield
Sunday evening, when in attempting to cross a street he was struck
by an automobile driven by Joseph Manawick. Mr. Hall, who is an aged man, evidently did not see the approaching automobile as he walked directly in front of it. He was knocked to the pavement but was able to arise and make his way back to the sidewalk. He was removed to St. John's hospital, where it was found that he had sustained severe bruises but nothing of a serious nature.

THE BIRD OF PARADISE
IS APPEALING PLAY

Drew Capacity Audience Monday Evening—Same High Standard as to Cast and Stage Setting Maintained.

"The Bird of Paradise" which was again on view at the Grand Monday
evening bids fair to go on forever.
Tho it was the second visit of the attraction Manager Johnson had the
"standing room only" sign out.

When Richard Walton Tully wrote
the Bird of Paradise seven years ago he little dreamed that it was destined to take its place among the greatest plays of all time. Yet this same play was turned down by some of the best managers in the east. Finally the author presented it to Oliver Morosco, the well known western manager. Mr. Morosco must have read between the lines the possibilities of the play, because its tragic ending is not one that would appeal to the average person. At any rate
he took the "chance" and that his judgment was good is proved by the wonderful success of the play.

With the scenes laid in the Hawaiian islands there surrounded the play all of the dreamy tropical mystery of that, one might say, Lotus land. Mr. Morosco has spared no expense in staging the play. Such minute detail is seldom seen in stage
effects and it is the preservation of the atmosphere that makes the play
so wonderful.

The role of Luana was portrayed Monday evening by Miss Marian Hutchins. Miss Hutchins is the seventh to play the part which has had such well known stars as Bessie Barriscale who originated the part.
May Buckley and others of note.
Miss Hutchins does not suffer by comparison with her predecessors.
She spent some months in Honolulu
and at first hand studied the customs and learned of the superstitions
of the natives. This study enabled
her to bring much of the local color
to the role.

The supporting company was equal to all the demands made of it
and the performance in its entirety
was fully up to the former production. The Hawaiian musicians were again a feature of the performance.
Their dreamy native music weaving
a thread of mystery thru the various scenes that added much to the play. Truly the Bird of Paradise deserves to rank with the great plays
of the day, and so long as it is presented in the high class manner
of last evening will continue to attract large throngs of playgoers.

MISS PATTEN HEARD

IN ARTISTIC PROGRAM.

The people of Jacksonville yesterday had the opportunity of hearing Miss Cora Mel Patten, widely known as a reader and impersonator.
Miss Patten gave a reading in the afternoon especially adapted for children and was heard again at night
in a program of more general character. The appearance of Miss Patten at this time was under the auspices of Trinity Guild by the courtesy of Mrs. Andrew Russell who paid
the entire expenses and gave the net
proceeds as an additional subscription to the army Y. M. C. A. fund.

Miss Patten has appeared in Jacksonville before and the splendid impression made when she gave Mater-linek's "The Blue Bird" here a year
or two since was increased yesterday. In the afternoon the audience mainly of children found that the story of "The Widow O'Calaghan's Boys" interested them from the very beginning until the last line. They followed the incidents with close attention and alternately wanted to laugh and cry.

In the evening at Academy hall
Miss Patten's program included Gib-
son's "Summer Dawn," Taylor's
"Post Office" and a two act playlet
of child life in which the influence
of imagination in the development
of the character of children was presented. Throughout it was a program which called for the real artistry of reading and expression and Miss Patten made the various characters
live and breathe for her auditors.
It was a pleasure also for those present
to have the opportunity of meeting Miss Patten who, as might be expected with one so successful in her work, is a woman of especial charm.

DR. HARKER EXPRESSES

APPRECIATION FOR AID.

Editor Jacksonville Journal:
We are all happy over the success of the Army Fund of the Y. M.
C. A. in Morgan county. The county has again shown that it can be depended on to do its full share in response to every patriotic appeal.
I have considered it an honor and
a privilege to work in such a cause.
It has unified the citizens of the county, and has greatly increased the public interest in everything relating to our boys in the camps and in the trenches. It has also increased our determination to see this war
thru, and it will ensure the success
of other appeals whenever they may be necessary. It shows that the hearts of Morgan county people are right, both in Jacksonville and thruout the county.

Personally, as Vice-chairman, in charge of the precincts in the county
outside of Jacksonville, it has been a great pleasure to work with the leaders in each precinct, and I wish to thank them all for their faithful work and hearty cooperation. With such an organization of efficient and enthusiastic leaders, one feels that nothing is impossible.

Sincerely,
Joseph R. Harker.

DR. STANLEY GIBSON IS
WITH ARMY IN FRANCE

Former Morgan County Man Gave
Up Practice to Go With Medical Reserve Corps—Description Gives
Idea of Immensity of Conflict.

Dr. W. Stanley Gibson has written an interesting letter from France to his mother, Mrs. George Gibson,
who now lives in Hanover Center,
Mass. Chas. R. Gibson, his brother, who lives on the home farm near Pisgah, kindly gave the letter for publication.

Dr. Stanley Gibson gave up his practice in Chicago and enlisted in the medical Reserve corps leaving for France early in Sept.

Dear Mother:—
We set foot on French soil the morning after a wonderfully fine trip. All of us are well and Joe and I have been having a fine time together. I wish I might describe our trip in detail but censorship will not permit it. We broke camp shortly after I wrote you last, went to the river, down stream on a ferry to our pier, and within half an hour
our vessel steamed out of harbor. It was an ideal day and as our shoreline was lost to view it was hard for us to realize that we were setting out for a journey to distant parts. Everybody was in excellent spirits and it seemed more like a pleasure trip
than a part of the grim business of war. We came on one of the best liners entering the war zone and all
officers were given first class passage.
We lived in unbelievable luxury, the meals being unusually good ooth in quality and quantity. During practically the entire trip the sea was smooth and I didn't miss a meal.
For one or two days the sea was choppy and I felt a little uneasiness
within. A few were quite sick but it didn't last long.

Precautions Against Submarines.

On the first day out just before sunset, a bank of clouds partially hid the sun in such a way that it made a striking resemblance to the Union Jack. We considered that a very auspicious omen as we were travelling under her flag and the trip helped to impress upon our minds the great part which England
is playing in the war. The precautions taken against submarine were most interesting. It shows how carefully the problem has been studied
and so far as we were concerned they were altogether successful. No submarines were sighted and while in the danger zone everything seemed so tranquil that it was difficult to realize there could be any danger lurking beneath the water. On the day before our arrival our pulses
were a little quickened by receiving a wireless that a vessel had been torpedoed only a few miles from us.
We were conveyed thru the latter part of the trip and I think any submarine getting its eye far above the surface would have met with a lively reception. Powerful glasses were constantly sweeping the water and at night the boat was completely light-tight. The only undersea animals we saw were whales and porpoises.

The personnel of our ship was an inspiration. Every one was cordial,
the feeling that all were going in a common cause making everyone unusually friendly. There was one person aboard that I shall never forget. Taken as a bunch they were the finest body of young fellows I have ever seen together. Keen, alert, of good families, well-educated, perfect
physical specimens and bubbling
over with enthusiasm, it was truly a noble company. They seemed above
the rest of us both physically and mentally as they will be literally
above us at the battle-front after a period of training here. Uncle Sam
may well be proud of them and I am sure they will do their share in masterly fashion.

On Shipboard.

Our time on shipboard was spent
promenading the deck, reading
books, playing cards and shuffle
board, listening to piano playing,
singing, etc. A number of excellent musicians were on board, among them Spaulding, the famous violinist. He is going in uniform as official interpreter for one of the groups
that will train on this side.

We reached an English port early in the morning, travelled across England by train thru the most charming country I have ever seen.
Not that the landscape is more beautiful than many parts of our own country, so far as natural beauty is concerned, but the perfection of its cultivation, the beautiful brick country, homes the well-kept hedges
everywhere dividing the land into plots of a few acres, the unusual
greenness of the grass and other vege-
tion, the winding roads, the numbered canals and an occasional castle
on some high hill—altogether it seemed a fairyland. It was so wonderfully well kept in war time I am wondering what it looks like when all the people are following their normal vocations. We had hoped to spend some time in London but we were there only long enough to change trains and went from one station to another by subway. My knowledge of the city consisted chiefly in a glimpse of Westminster Abbey and the House of Parliament
as we were crossing the Thames to the train.

We were brought to the south of England, stayed over night, then took a boat across the channel. We are in a hotel at that place where we landed and will move to our hospital
tomorrow.

The Great Conflict.

A day here has already given us
some idea of the immensity of the conflict. Soldiers are thronging the streets, practically the only ones in civilian dress being old men and boys. Women drive taxicabs, work in the streets, act as motemen and conductors on street cars. We went to a restaurant this evening for supper, going in before dark. When we came out it was pitch dark, not a street light or light from any window, and had it been far we would have had trouble in finding our hotel.

Thick curtains shade our windows
and the we have electric lights in our rooms, the current is off and we are writing by the light of a dim candle. You may have noticed in the papers that London has been bombed every night for eight nights.
When people have had to keep their cities dark for almost three years
now, you can imagine how completely the war has disturbed the normal activities of the people. We may be thankful that it is not on our own shores.

It happens that I am writing on your anniversary so I shall extend love and best wishes, tho I hope you received my cable message prompt-

Six Morgan county men were exempted by the district board at Springfield from military service and the local board so informed yesterday. Two, Carl Litter of Jacksonville and Newell Brane of Jacksonville, Route four, were discharged on an appeal from the rulings of the local board. Four men, William F. Kennedy of Franklin, Harry Brockhouse of Chapin, Le Roy T. Potter, of Jacksonville, and Albert Crabtree of Murrayville, were granted exemption on industrial grounds.

It is understood that the Adjutant General has not thought it advisable to send a man of military experience to Jacksonville to address any body of men on the subject of a Home Guard movement until an organization has been completed. After a conference with State Auditor Andrew Russell, Fire Chief Hunt, Fred Darr and Attorney H. P. Green decided to pay a personal visit to the Adjutant General's office in Springfield and confer with him. A more definite idea of what confronts the local boys would then be obtained. It is probable that a meeting will be held at the Court House tomorrow evening for the purpose of organizing the local company. It may be at that time that the Springfield committee will be able to have a definite word for the men. Further notice regarding the meeting, if one is called, will be published tomorrow morning.

A sudden halt has taken place in the granting of furloughs to the Illinois soldiers at Camp Logan.

No more leaves of absence except for a few hours at a time will be given out, no distinction is to be made between officers and enlisted men.

Two reasons are held responsible for the tightening of the strings on the soldiers. One is the need of the men in camp for instructions. Every possible moment is being utilized by the commanding officers for the teaching of the Illinois troops the science of modern warfare. So crowded has the daily program become that night classes are being conducted in each regiment and it is expected that several hours of study will be ordered for the officers on Sundays.

The other reason is, as expressed by a staff officer, "No one can foresee what will happen any one of these days." And, in case "some thing" does happen, every soldier is wanted in camp at that time.

The rules and regulations regarding the new classification of registrants and the regulations relative to the use of the questionnaire have been received at the office of the local board of exemption but the questionnaires have not yet been received. While copies of the regulations were at hand at the office of the board yesterday, none of the members of the board have yet had time to go into the study of these voluminous pamphlets and it will be some days before any questions concerning the new rulings will be answered by the board. The questionnaires contain sixteen pages of small type and it will require considerable study by each registrant after he receives his copy to get them filled out properly and each question answered in a correct manner. At that time however the office of the board will be glad to help anyone who is puzzled regarding the regulations.

Already more than six thousand men have enrolled in the Volunteer Training Corps of the State Council of Defense, outside the city of Chicago. In Chicago four regiments have been organized, and transferred to the auxiliary militia of the state. Illinois would be able to command more than 10,000 men for home guard duties, in addition to the three regiments of the national guard which have been organized and trained since the original eight regiments were called for foreign service.

It is understood that the state contemplates the organization of the Sixth Regiment, Illinois National Guard to take the place of the Fifth and it may be that the local home guard company will be permitted to be represented as a company of that new regiment. Such a privilege would give much prestige to the local organization and would place Jacksonville, as usual, in the forefront of such movements.

Word was received at the Journal office yesterday from Corporal John, son, 1st Co. Military Police, Camp Logan, Texas. He writes as follows: "Camp Logan, Nov. 14, 1917."

Dear Sir: I am now writing a few lines to let you know that the Jacksonville boys in this camp are fine and dandy. I believe I spoke to you of our being mounted. We now have 130 horses. We take infantry and cavalry drills. We have more fun at cavalry drill. One of the boys was thrown by his horse one day recently. He was quite a little bruised up but not enough to go to the hospital. It was fun for us to run his horse down. I will tell you some good things we have here at camp. We have a Y. M. C. A., shower baths when we wish and also have long stables for our horses. We have several formations every day. We have something doing most all of the time. The shows are free to members of the military police. We have a lot of fun also with the dump men here at camp. We have to search the autos as they come into camp to see that there is no whiskey in them. It is the guard house for anyone who brings it into camp. The Y. M. C. A. also puts on Tuesday movies for the boys of Camp Logan, which makes life more like home. I have met several fellows here who have been thru Jacksonville but do not know much about the town. As news is scarce I shall come to a close. Here is hoping for the war to be over soon.

AUDITORIUM BOMB SCARE

Gates Strawn, Mrs. Frank Strawn, and Miss Trabue were at the Grand Opera performance in the Auditorium, Chicago on the occasion of the bomb scare. The bomb was placed on the floor directly behind where they were sitting. The incident created intense excitement for a time but with rare presence of mind the orchestra leader started the Star Spangled Banner and the artist on the stage at the time began to sing it. The audience joined in and order was restored and what seemed would be a bad panic averted. No one was injured except one woman who was slightly burned in stamping out the blaze. The party spent the entire week attending the opera and report some brilliant offerings, many of them new and a splendid company.

The army Y. M. C. A. war fund campaign came to a near close Monday night with the announcement of total subscriptions of $23,920.10. Of this sum $8,045.49 was contributed by precincts outside of Jacksonville and by Jacksonville precinct $15,874.61.

When it is remembered that the minimum allotment for Morgan county was $14,000 it will be seen that the county has exceeded its apportionment by something more than 70 per cent. The statement that "the heart of America does things" certainly applies to the people of Morgan county. The sum total will be increased to some extent in the next few days, as in Centerville, Nortonville and Meredosia the allotments had not been reached and the work is still in progress. The campaign did not get under way promptly in these precincts and so the returns are somewhat slow in being received.

In the closing days of last week it was apparent that the county subscriptions would be well over the minimum mark and might reach $21,000, but there were none sanguine enough to predict that the total would reach so near to $24,000 by Monday night, with still "others to hear from." The generosity and interest of the people was of course the big factor in the success of this campaign, but the underlying fact was the thro and intelligent organization. Many of the busiest men of Jacksonville and various other communities in the county gave freely of their time and so the sum total of success was due both to organization and generosity.

The spirit of the whole campaign was quite well typified by the action of the Pastoral Helpers of Central Christian church, who donated to the fund the total sum of $273 that they had received for serving meals thru the week. This society gave splendid service and the meals served have not been equalled thru any other campaign. Dr. Rammelkamp as chairman and Dr. Harker as vice chairman, worked with untiring zeal and they testify that the volunteers for work were many, that there were no shirkers and that all to whom tasks were given assumed the responsibility of service very willingly.

It was a very enthusiastic gathering for the last noon day luncheon when the various reports were made.

Later in the day there came various subscriptions from the county precincts and the total contributions as given above were taken from the records at 9 o'clock last night.

D. A. R. S. Will Give. Mrs. Hubble in her report mentioned that Rev. James Caldwell chapter D. A. R. will make a contribution and that the amount is to be determined upon at the regular meeting today. Mrs. Danksin mentioned that in report for her team there was included $12.09 given by people of Bethel A. M. E. church and $110.50 by employees of Jacksonville state hospital.

In making report for his team F. H. Bode referred to the generous contribution of James H. Hall who gave the entire receipts from his Sunday business amounting to $76.15. Mr. Bode said that George E. Matthews, as one of the solicitors, had suggested to Mr. Hall that the expenses of the day should be taken out but Mr. Hall was unwilling to do this. Mr. Bode referred to the good work done by Fred Davey of the utility company office and by Fred Darr. The contributions reported by W. B. Rogers included $10 from the congregation of the Northminster church. Dr. A. L. Adams reported for the team of which Rev. M. L. Pontius is the captain the amount being $167. The report presented by Dr. Bowe included $180 given by pupils and employees at the State School for the Deaf and Dr. Bowe mentioned that the contribution by Supt. Gillett did not appear in this sum. E. E. Crabtree reported collections of $208.50, which included a subscription of $5 from the Strawn's Crossing Woman's club and $73.50 from employees of Capps & Sons mill. This sum represents eighty seven subscriptions, reporting $229 from his team. Frank Byrns mentioned the subscription of $20 from the U. C. T. $28 from the Christian church and $105 collected by traveling men. This last sum represented a sort of "super bit" as these men had already made other subscriptions before giving this amount. The general sum also included $25 from postoffice employees.

Mr. Floreth's team during the week had been credited with $81 from the Kresge store and Mr. Floreth mentioned that the total contributions made by Kresge stores all thru the county was $16,375. Mr. Graff, as was true all during the week, presented the last of the city team reports, $312.90. As Mr. Graff was captain of the thirteenth team he was the butt of a good many jokes during the week but "came up smiling" with the high record for the week, the total collections of his team amounting to $1,790.45. Some County Precinct Reports. Dr. Rammelkamp then called upon Dr. Harker to present the reports from the county precincts. Dr. Harker gave some of the figures and in other instances called upon men from the county precincts who happened to be present. Levi Deatherage made the report for Aracadia, showing that that precinct collected $255.50, on an assessment of $240. Rev. L. Hadaway from Chapin gave the total figures for that precinct and W. H. Crum of Literberry told how the successful work had been done in that precinct where everybody seemed willing to aid. For Franklin W. N. Luttrell reported a total of $1,005 and said that interest in the army Y. M. C. A. movement in his locality is rampant and that little difficulty was experienced in securing the large overplus after the work had been thoroughly mapped out and undertaken.

Arthur Swain reported that the work had been a little slow in starting in Sinclair but that every subscription was in cash and that in a number of cases the committee found the people who were not at home had left subscription money for them in anticipation of the visit. Dr. Harker mentioned that it was somewhat more difficult to organize the county precincts because it was impossible for the workers to get together each day as is possible in the city, and have the inspiration of hearing the various reports of the speakers from outside. He said too that it was the first time that he had taken to work side by side with Dr. Rammelkamp and that he had found him a competent director, one with whom it was a pleasure to work. Then he went on to say that he hoped that in coming days the two colleges might be found working together along a great many lines.

Schools and Colleges Report. Mrs. Lillian King was called upon and speaking for the Pastoral Helpers, said that 546 persons had been served since the campaign began and the agreement with the committee was 50c per plate. This service in money amounted to $273. In accordance with the previous promise the organization was very glad to make this sum as a cash donation. Mrs. E. L. Hill reported that the collections at Jacksonville State Hospital totaled $310.59. Reports were then presented for the various schools and colleges. Miss Randolph for the Illinois Woman's College reported $1,065. Miss Ruth Weyand for Illinois college reported $1,021.50, and Miss Weyand mentioned that during the past week two more Illinois college students had enlisted for service, bringing the total to 98. Professor Callihan reported collections from the high school totaling $726 by classes as follows: Freshmen, $73.20; sophomores, $145.30; juniors, $136.25; seniors, $135.25; faculty, $215; domestic science girls, $20. Miss White reported for David Prince school a total of $245.30, of which $106.87 was from the seventh grade and $138.45 from the eighth grade. Miss Hammond reported $8 from the open air school, contributed by 80 pupils. Reports were made from the ward schools as follows: Miss Cobb, Jefferson, $35; Miss Paxton, Lafayette, $27.84; Miss Lusk, Franklin, $54.55; Mrs. Dunlap, Washington school, $84; Miss Cobb, Independence school, $6.42; Miss Lusk, Morton school, $14.05. The contributions for the School for the Blind were reported as $251.30 and from the School for the Real, $180. Collections from the business college were reported from Principal Claybaugh as $85.

Supt. H. A. Perrin briefly summarized the part the Jacksonville school system has had in the campaign showing that the schools contributed a total of $1,201.16.

Mr. Wolcott, an assistant state secretary for the Y. M. C. A. spoke briefly and told of the pleasure he had had in observing the work done in three districts. He mentioned, too, having seen a recent telegram from Dr. Mott in which it was stated that Dr. Mott had positive announcement that 1,000,000 more men from the U. S. will be in camp by May 1. The secretary said he was confident that the total collections thruout the country would be $25,000,000. "The heart of America does things."

The Chairman's Closing Words. Dr. Rammelkamp called attention to the fact that the Y. M. C. A. headquarters will remain open for several days further, while some subscription details are being completed, and all persons who wish to pay pledges may call at the headquarters. R. A. Gates, who is serving as auditor and secretary, will have the records ready. Dr. Rammelkamp in closing said that it was impracticable to mention workers by name but that he wished to thank all of the members of the general committee, the captains and the members of the team, thru whose arduous and earnest efforts it had been possible for the county to make such a splendid showing. The speaker said he felt that it had been indeed an honor to be chosen for chairman in such a difficult work and he believed that every man who had taken a part felt a real joy in this service. Dr. Rammelkamp referred particularly to the efficient way in which Dr. Harker as assistant chairman had managed the campaign in the county precincts and said that it had been indeed a real pleasure to work with Dr. Harker in this cause, and he expressed also the hope that all those who had taken part might be associated in still other work.

Immediately after this meeting adjourned an auction was held in front of the building, where City Commissioner Jerry Cox sold a pig that had been donated by Mr. and Mrs. Austin Patterson and sister. This was a pedigreed Poland China pig and was sold first to Mayor Rodgers on his bid of $33, then the mayor paid for his purchase was $46.375. Mr. Graff, for a second time the porker brought $33 and is now the property of Riley Young of Literberry. One-half of the proceeds from the pig went to the army Y. M. C. A. and one-half to the Red Cross society.

Pig and Lamb at Auction. The lamb donated by Crum Cleary was then sold, the purchaser being Capps & Sons. The highest bid was $21, made by H. M. Capps, and after the lamb had been knocked off to him Mr. Capps voluntarily raised the figure to $25. The money from the fleece goes to the Red Cross. Mr. Capps announced that the animal will be slaughtered by the Jacksonville Packing company and the meat divided between Our Savior's hospital and Passavant hospital. Next a luncheon set donated by Miss Alice Deere was sold and after some spirited bidding was purchased by Mayor Rodgers for $16.50. Mr. Cox declared that he believed that the committees managing various charitable enterprises could secure many gifts of hogs, sheep and chickens and volunteered his services as auctioneer at any time.

Because of the large amount of accounting work in progress yesterday resulting from the school and county reports it wasn't possible for the office force to have a list of subscriptions ready for publication. The subscriptions made up to noon Friday have been published and the others will appear tomorrow or the day following. District Makes Fine Showing. H. J. Rodgers as chairman and J. S. Findlay as secretary for the district Y. M. C. A. organization were naturally greatly gratified last night by the reports from the four counties in the district showing that the total of contributions is more than $50,000 with several thousand more sure to come in. If other districts respond with like loyalty and generosity the maximum mark of $50,000,000 will be reached. The subscriptions by counties thus far received: Morgan county—$23,920.10; goal, $25,000; Cass county—$7,631; goal, $7,000; Pike county—$15,000; goal, $12,000; Scott county—$3,350; goal, $4,200.

Most of the speaking campaign was conducted from this city and a loyal, untiring body of men assisted in this work.

ISLE OF ELBA HAS VALUABLE IRON MINES

Scarcity of Mines in Italy and Difficulty of Transporting Ore from U. S. Have Given New Importance to Island.

Portoferraio, Isle of Elba.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—This island, celebrated as the place where Napoleon was imprisoned in 1814, has since Italy's entrance into this war attracted much attention as the source of valuable ore mines.

In view of the scarcity of iron mines in Italy and the difficulty of transporting ore or pigs from the United States for use in the munition factories the mines of Elba have given a new importance to the island. Travellers on the Genoa-Rome express, which skirts the seashore of the mainland, permitting a view on a clear day of the blue island rising out of the water, six miles distant, think rather of the tall country stacks in the foreground at Piombino than of the great soldiers of other wars.

In the days before the war this express stopped at Campiglia, to put off tourists for Piombino and Elba. Today it stops to put off business men, skilled iron workers, Italian soldiers and their Austrian prisoners interned on the island. The sidetracks at Campiglia have been enlarged since the war, too, for the purpose of handling the large quantity of iron from freight brought over from Elba.

Napoleon's name has almost been forgotten on the island, so busy are the inhabitants with the war work. How can I get to the Villa San Martino? a visitor arriving on the stone wharf of the harbor inquired of a workman. The workman looked at the visitor blankly, when the visitor added: "You know, the place where Napoleon used to live." The man shook his head: "I'm a new-comer here. Never heard of that place."

Finally an old native volunteered the information: "It's the house on the top of the hill there, above the harbor. Nearly burnt up last month when the woods in back got afire." That was all. No offer of guides to show the way to the old villa, to the seat on the promontory where the baffled Emperor used to silently sit and gaze over the quiet blue sea, no offer to tell of the plans for his escape back to the mainland of Europe previous to the Hundred Days ending in Waterloo and Helena. At the town tobacco shop a bright-eyed little girl, selling the usual stock of newspapers and periodicals, when asked for some picture postcards of the villa, explained that they were out of print since the war. "Wouldn't it be fine if the Kaiser was captured and brought here, too?" she said.

CLOSE ARGUMENTS IN FREIGHT RATES CASE

Railroads Assert Increased Revenue Has Not Offset Increased Cost of Operation.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Arguments in the eastern railroads' fifteen per cent advance rate case before the interstate commerce commission closed today with a statement of counsel for the roads that even if this increase is granted they soon will ask for another advance of approximately fifteen per cent in class and commodity rates and ten per cent a ton on coal and coke.

With both sides agreed that railroad incomes had increased, the chief point of contention was that additional revenue had not offset increased cost of operation.

Mr. Patterson, the only attorney speaking for the roads said the last advance had failed by about $120,000,000 to cover increased expenses of the thirty eight systems. Counsel for the shippers maintained that by use of additional revenue and surplus the railroads would not be in worse condition than other business and that under such circumstances they should not expect to impose additional burden on the shippers.

Mr. Patterson replied that the railroads had no desire to make money out of the war but that they recognized industry had a great burden to bear and believed that it should be divided rather than placed in one branch of the business.

Clifford Thorne, leading counsel for the shippers said that an increase in freight rates is essentially a tax and "that it is no time for an organized set of business men to ask the American people to increase their burden. Additional demands of the railroads," he continued, "are almost keeping pace with the government in adding burdens to the people."

Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and easy to make.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain granulated sugar syrup. Nothing better, but why buy it? You can easily make it yourself in five minutes.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex (60 cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for $2.50. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt results.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

EXCERPTS FROM LETTERS OF NOVELIST AND SOLDIER

Rev. F. B. Madden Reviewed Letters Written By Lieut. Coningsby Dawson—Heart of Soldier Brave at All Times But Wonderfully Tender Is Revealed.

As a prelude to the Communion service Sunday morning at Grace church Dr. F. B. Madden read excerpts from "Carry On," letters in wartime by Lieutenant Coningsby Dawson, novelist and soldier. Mr. Dawson was the son of the distinguished Congregational clergyman, Rev. W. J. Dawson, of England, who later came to the United States.

Coningsby was graduated with honors from Oxford in 1905, and came immediately to New York and entered Union Theological Seminary. After one year there he decided that his life work should be in literature. After four years of apprenticeship spent at Tauton, Mass., during which time he worked from 7 to 10 hours a day "with austere devotion to his art," he achieved his first real success in his novel "The Garden Without Walls." He also wrote "The Ruff and "Slaves of Freedom."

Suddenly in 1914 "the guns that roared along the Marne shattered all his purpose, and left him face to face with a solemn spiritual exigency which admitted no equivocation." As soon as possible he went to Ottawa and was given a commission in the Canadian Field Artillery on the completion of his training at the Royal Military College, at Kingston, Ontario. In July, 1916, he was selected with 24 other officers for immediate service in France, where all too soon this brave artistic soul made the supreme sacrifice.

His father published this little volume of intimate, personal letters in the hope that the spirit and temper of the writer might "strengthen and invigorate those who, like himself, are called to make great sacrifices for high causes and solemn duties."

Week by week the letters came, with occasional interruptions. "Muddled epistles, written in pencil, in dug-outs by the light of a single candle, in the brief moments from hard and perilous duties on the Somme battlefield—an inferno much more terrible than any Dante picture."

The spirit of these letters is so sweet and brave that every one, touched in any deep way by this cataclysm which has overwhelmed the world, will be greatly heartened by reading them. The book is in the Public Library. I close this brief review with a part of the letter Coningsby wrote from Halifax on July 23rd, as he was about to sail on the Olympic with 6,000 troops and a big convoy. He wrote his father:

Would Not Turn Back.

"You are thinking of me this quiet Sunday morning at the ranch, and I of you. And I am wishing—as I wish I could ask myself—'Would I be there if I could have my choice?' And I remember those lines of Emerson's which you quoted:

"Though love repine and reason chafe, There comes a voice without reply 'Twere man's perdition to be safe. When for the truth he ought to die."

I wouldn't turn back if I could, but my heart cries out against "the voice which speaks without reply."

Things are growing deeper with me in all sorts of ways. Family affections stand out so desirably and vivid, like meadows green after rain. And religion means more. The love of a few dear human people and the love of the divine people out of sight, are all that one has to lean on in the grave hours of life. I hope I come back again—I very much hope I come back again: there are so many finer things that I could do with the rest of my days—bigger things. But if by any chance I should cross the seas to stay, you'll know that that also will be right and as big as anything that I could do with life, and something that you'll be able to be just as proud about if I had lived to fulfill all your other dear hopes for me. I don't suppose I shall talk of this again. But I wanted you to know that underneath all the lightness and ambition there's something that I learnt years ago in Highbury. (His father was pastor for 13 years of the Highbury Quadrant Congregational church, London, England.) I've become a little child again in God's hands, with full confidence in His love and wisdom, and a growing trust that whatever He decides for me will be the best and kindest.

A Tradition to Live Up To.

"This is the letter I shall be able to send you before the other boys follow me. Keep brave, dear ones, for all our sakes; don't let any of us turn cowards whatever ultimately happens. We've a tradition to live up to now that we have become a family of soldiers and sailors."

"I shall long for the time when you can come over to England. Where will our meeting be and when? Perhaps the war may be ended and then won't you be glad that we dared all this sorrow of good-byes?"

God Bless and keep you.

Con.

His two younger brothers enlisted in the Naval Patrol recruited in Canada and are serving in the Royal Naval Motor Patrol in the North of Scotland.

The Literberry M. E. society met Wednesday afternoon at South View Farm with Mrs. A. G. Lind, hostess.

Miss Ruth Deatherage read the scripture lesson.

Song, "Illinois."

Prayer—Mrs. O. G. Dinwiddie.

A good report was given of work done for the Red Cross, both of knitting and sewing. Mrs. Obermeyer appointed inspectors and more work was given out.

The society voted ten dollars to the Y. M. C. A. fund, five for Literberry precinct and five for Arcadia.

Mrs. Roscoe Goodpasture of Spring Hill gave a ready on "Thanksgiving."

Mrs. Obermeyer read an article on the Y. M. C. A. work.

Delicious refreshments were served and a good offering taken.

The next meeting will be at Wayside Welcome, with Mrs. Clarence Thompson.

News Items

Mrs. May Vastine, of Hastings, Neb., is visiting at Sunny Slope on Sweet Briar avenue, with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Murray.

Some good looking people from Arcadia attended the Baptist Sunday school Sunday morning. Our superintendent has chosen a primary book on mission work to be read aloud in the Sabbath school, for the benefit of the children. Five or ten minutes is given at the close of the school for this Children's Missionary work.

The book is interesting and tells of Italy's little ones. The superintendent appoints different readers for each Sabbath. Other missionary books will be taken up when this one is finished. The children are expected to make an offering on Christmas, for missions.

The children of the Literberry college are very much interested in the Y. M. C. A. fund and are preparing to raise $50 soon for this cause. Some of them are being employed by their parents and friends and are earning their bit. We are sure they will accomplish their good desires.

The Literberry M. E. society will give a "hen social" on Friday evening the 23rd of November, 1917, at the Arcadia church. There will be a good program of piano selections, vocal music, recitations, and perhaps there will be a Thanksgiving play. Every lady is expected to bring a hen. Be sure to bring it alive for coops will be ready, and a poultry man will be there to buy these fat hens. Every lady will bring lunch of pie and cookies. Coffee will be provided and there will be "eats" for all who go.

The society will use the money derived from the sale of the hens for Red Cross work. Everybody is expected to come out and help, have a good social time and enjoy a good program, besides helping a good cause.

FACTS REGARDING ASPHALT PAVING.

Andrew Jaeks, president of the Standard Paving company, is spending a day or two in the city looking over the work being done here by his company on Prairie street. Mr. Jaeks says his company is now operating in eight or ten cities in various parts of the country, Kansas City, Colorado, Oregon and Marshall, Missouri; Kewanee, Ill., and other places.

The material is found in Trinidad, British West Indies and is secured in a kind of gumbo state as it is heaved up from the interior of the earth. By a chemical process it is freed from all foreign material and brought to a suitable condition of elasticity and gravity. It is then shipped to the place where it is to be used and there mixed with seventy per cent sand and at a suitable temperature is placed on the concrete foundation and pressed down with the immense rollers which give it such a fine surface.

The secret of a good pavement is a correct process thru all the stages from the time the material leaves the earth and when that is the case it is a fine pavement as has been well demonstrated on West College street in this city and elsewhere, and when the proper conditions have not been observed the result is anything but satisfactory.

OFF FOR THE WESTERN COAST.

This morning Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pinkerton expected to start in their Ford car for the far west with Los Angeles as their final objective point. It is their intention to take the southern Burlington route going by way of Houston, Texas, and making a visit with their son in camp there and then proceeding by New Orleans, El Paso and the desert. Mr. Pinkerton has two sisters living in or near Los Angeles and he expects to remain in that vicinity until the latter part of next summer and when the return trip will be undertaken by the northern way.

The travelers will go prepared to camp by the wayside if they desire when they reach the zone of mild weather, their car being so arranged that they can turn it into a bed room for sleeping purposes. Their numerous friends will wish them a prosperous and pleasant journey, visit and return.

Clear complexion, bright eyes, and good digestion come from using Mica stomach tablets. Money back if they fail to give satisfaction. This is the way Coover & Shreve's drug stores sell them.—Adv.

MEETING AT BLUFFS FOR ARMY Y. M. C. A.

Various Speakers Emphasized Importance of Work and Urgent Need for Funds—Opening Session of the Sunday School Convention.

Bluffs, Nov. 17.—A Y. M. C. A. patriotic meeting was held at the Meehan theater Friday night. Only about sixty were present and very little interest was shown. J. J. Reeve of Jacksonville was the main speaker of the evening. In his remarks he clearly pointed out the great work done by the Y. M. C. A. The quota for Scott county is $4,200 to be raised to carry on the great work being done in this country and in Europe. The quota for Bluffs precinct is $500. Dr. Howe of Jacksonville also gave a short talk on the great work of the Y. M. C. A. at the present time, the urgent need of the quota here to be raised and to be subscribed quickly. Judge Funk of Winchester further urged that the money be raised at once. Subscribing to this great work should be looked upon as a privilege, as an opportunity to help our boys in the cantonment camps of the U. S. and in foreign lands. At the close of the meeting the following were appointed to get busy at once and raise by subscription the amount allotted to Bluffs precinct: E. D. Baird, E. L. Kendell, Lafayette Six and the ministers of Bluffs.

The Sunday school convention opened at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The first on program was a song service led by Rev. P. A. Sorensen which was followed by the invocation by Rev. E. J. Rees. Mr. DePew of Jacksonville gave an able address on "What We May Expect from this Convention." He pointed out the things to be accomplished by efficient Sunday school work.

Rev. P. A. Sorensen gave a splendid talk on "The Convention Key-word Service." In part he said that in his hunch no person who was not a member of the church in good standing could be a teacher in that Sunday school. The children in the Sunday school should be trained by Christian men and women. He also spoke of the ignorance of the people in general as to the Bible and showed how necessary it was for teachers to prepare their lessons as a reasonable service for God Almighty. Good, efficient teachers are necessary to good Sunday school work. Have some good system and follow it. "Keeping the Child Interested," a paper by Miss Lois Bean of Winchester was read by Mrs. Ed Gregory of Naples. The paper was good, to the point and contained much food for thought. Song, "God Will Take Care of You" closed the afternoon session.

EXPRESS APPRECIATION SHIPMENT OF DELICACIES

Consignment Sent to Great Lakes Naval Station by Chapin Women Appreciated by Men—Letter from Chaplain to Mrs. F. P. McKinney.

Some time ago the Chapin Red Cross auxiliary sent a shipment of delicacies to the Great Lakes Naval station. Mrs. F. P. McKinney last week received the following from Charles W. Moore, chaplain, expressing the appreciation of the men for the offerings.

U. S. Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Illinois, November 13, 1917.

Mrs. F. P. McKinney, Chapin, Ill.

My dear Mrs. McKinney:

We are very grateful indeed to you and the members of the Red Cross Auxiliary of Chapin, Ill., for sending the delicacies we have just received. The boxes and barrels have been opened and every thing found to be in good shape.

I know you will fully appreciate the good purpose to which your gifts are to be put when we tell you that we have made arrangements to send the contents of your shipment to the Naval Hospital at the Great Lakes Training Station. We feel that the convalescents at the hospital are those who would enjoy the fruits and preserves far more than the strong healthy men in training.

You have undertaken most worthy work and we hope that you will continue to maintain the admirable standards you have adopted. It is indeed gratifying to note the wonderful manner in which the women of America do the work before them; not only the work that is expected of them, but a great deal more.

Please convey our deep appreciation to the members of your Red Cross Chapter and tell them that we are indeed grateful to them for this gift to the boys of the Great Lakes Naval Station.

Very sincerely yours,

Charles W. Moore, Chaplain.

REVIVAL AT LITERBERRY HAS CLOSED.

Rev. L. D. Hill of Deatur and W. H. Crum of Literberry were in the city yesterday well pleased with the results of the meetings Mr. Hill has been conducting in the Christian church in Literberry the past few weeks. The church members have been brought together and have received a fresh inspiration while thirteen new members are another result of the meetings and another gratifying fact is that eleven of them are men who will devote their lives, it is to be expected, to the service of the Master whose cause they have espoused.

Last evening witnessed the final meeting which was a baptism, a social gathering and praise service to the Lord for what He has done for the church. There was a fine attendance and the services were deeply impressive and very enjoyable. Mr. Hill leaves Literberry with the good will and cordial wishes of a large number of friends he has made while serving the church.

The W. C. T. U. meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gibbs, City Place, Wednesday at 2:30. All members are urged to be present.

When you wash Stockings

Use Fels-Naptha soap—no boiling is necessary and it cleans stockings perfectly, even without hard rubbing.

It won't rot the fibres of fine silk stockings. It won't take away the lustre of mercerized hose. And it's ideal for keeping cotton stockings soft and comfortable.

The best way to wash stockings—warm Fels-Naptha suds.

Fels-Naptha won't turn white silk stockings yellow.

MONDAY'S CORN
MARKET BEARISH

Enlargement of Supplies and Improved Quality of Arrivals Affects Grain.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—Enlargement of supplies and improved quality of arrivals,
made a bearish corn market today, prices
sliding at the close were 5c net
lower with January $1.16 1/2, and May $1.15 1/2 to $1.15 1/4. Oats finished unchanged to 2 higher and provisions 2 1/2
to 3c.

Receipts of corn here showed a liberal total for the first time in a large while the aggregate being 447 carloads, of which 239 were new corn. Besides the United States visible supply gained in the last week 14,000 bushels. Another decided help to the bear side was a special government report which seemed to indicate that the federal crop estimate of 2,900,000 bushels did not include the worst damaged corn and therefore meant
a larger percentage of good corn than traders had estimated. Some removal of nearboard demand at the close strengthened. Short buying lifted provisions.

SCOTT COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOLS ELECT OFFICERS

County Convention Held at Bluffs Was Most Successful—C. L. DePew of Jacksonville Delivered Address—Residence Property Destroyed by Fire.

Bluffs, Nov. 19.—The dwelling house occupied by Mrs. Margaret Van Hynning caught on fire Sunday at 4:30 o'clock p. m. and burned to the ground. The roof was ablaze before the fire was discovered and gained headway rapidly. Most of the furniture and household effects were saved. The property was the home of the late S. R. Clark and is owned by Fred Clark of Venice, Ill. Valuation, $2,500 which was partly covered by insurance. Fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue.

The Sunday School convention which was in session Saturday and Sunday was brought to a close Sunday night by an address by Mr. DePew of Jacksonville, who in well chosen words gave mental pictures of the great influence for good accomplished by the well organized Sunday school. The attendance was good at all the sessions and much interest manifested. Most of the precincts of the county were represented.

The success of this convention was largely due to Carl Ritter, the county superintendent, who is a faithful worker and has labored incessantly for the betterment of the Sunday schools of the county.

The following county officers were elected for the year: President, Carl Ritter; secretary, Miss Norma Abrams; treasurer, Miss Veta Mueller; cradle roll superintendent, Mrs. J. N. CAMOUFLAGE

On the permanent staff of the Natural History Museum in London there are two little wooden ducks. Roger Pocock says in an article on "The Art of Concealment." They are dressed in gray flannel, and each housed in a glass case with a gray flannel background. No. 1 duck is dressed in plain gray flannel and you can see her plainly at a hundred yards, because of the dark shadows cast by her neck and body, as well as by the brightness of her back. No. 2 duck is slightly whitened underneath to counteract the shadows, and slightly bronzed on top to counteract the light. Even at six feet the show case appears to be empty. There is no sign of a duck. No hawk, no fox, no sportsman with a scatter-gun and a small dog could possibly discover or kill the invisible duck unless she moved, or made foolish quacks to guide her enemies. A great many years ago I wrote the Lords of the Admiralty imploring them to go and see the invisible duck who could teach them priceless lessons in the art of concealing battleships and cruisers. They promised faithfully, so I have no doubt they called and left their cards.

Am I giving away a secret, or letting cats out of bags? From all I hear the British Navy of today can show the invisible duck that she is a mere beginner in the art of camouflage. In the current of the French you may see a tramp steamer impersonating a German sausage works. That is a joke, but the British fleet delights in playing practical jokes on the Germans. You may have noticed, for example, that the U-boat campaign is not a complete success, and that the British Lion does not as yet sit up and beg for mercy.

If you would study camouflage by land go look at the wild animals. See how the tawny lion and striped tiger are painted to resemble the tall yellow bunch grass of the jungle. The giraffe is painted with a quaint diamond pattern exactly like the flickering lights among the acacia trees on which he feeds. The leopard, the jaguar and all spotted cats, the spotted deer, and the dappled horse are painted to imitate light under shady tree. The pig is patched pink and brown like the sunlight, and the shadow of the denser woods. The elephant is painted a hazy brown like the great trees of the deepest forest. So all the wild beasts are colored for concealment in their natural landscape while many of them change their clothes with the seasons, wearing white for the snowy winters, brown for the torrid summers. In exactly the same way our British armies are clothed in tawny dun for the tropics, and in khaki for the warfare in temperate regions.

The khaki blends exactly with the grasses and timber of Northwestern Europe. As for the German field-gray, it is a capital imitation of the shadows cast by woods or entrenchments on a sunny day, and blends very nicely either with rain or fog. The horizon blue of the French armies tones well into average landscape. All are useful colors. In the early part of the war the British made one mistake. The service cap was kept taut and smart with a wire hoop inside the rim of its flat top. So stretched, the cloth reflected sunlight and presented a fine target for enemy marksmen until we found out what was wrong. Then we removed the wire, and the cap was no longer a target. When, during air raids, our men get the order "to stand fast," the army is almost altogether invisible at 2500 feet.

In the old days our bell tents made excellent targets for heavy artillery, being visible at a distance of many miles. Now all of them are painted with a special sort of distemper, and the holder the patches, the stronger the colors, the better. Strong painting breaks the contours of any object and so not only tents, but guns, limbers, wagon covers, and huts are made to look just like the patched and broken ground of camps and roadways. Beyond such elementary trifles in camouflage the writer may not go—with discretion. But the thing is certainly a wonderful and complete art, today.

At the present time poor Fritz is sorely puzzled. Even when we let his aeroplane observers enjoy a peep at our lines, the things that they see are not really there at all while the guns they can neither see nor photograph are playing havoc with the fond ambitions of the superman.

One must own that Fritz is artful himself, but the British Army, like the Navy, has many a merry jest at the expense of the bewildered enemy.

ELM GROVE

Mrs. Luther Culp spent Wednesday with Mrs. Jim Ranson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKean of Woodson took dinner with Joe Barnhart Tuesday.

Misses Fay Ranson and Avanda Potter were Springfield visitors Saturday.

A community box social and entertainment will be given at the Elm Grove school house on the evening of Nov. 29 for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Elm Grove people seen in Jacksonville Saturday on various missions were Mr. and Mrs. James Ranson, Mr. Fred Scholfield, Miss Mary Fearnough, Misses Ruth and Irene Hamel, Mr. R. R. Ragan and family, Miss Bertha Welsh, Mr. Charles Potter.

Mr. Peter Hamel of Jacksonville is visiting at the home of his son, Charles Hamel.

Mr. E. R. Angelo spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. R. Ragan.

One Good Reason for Battery Care

Every year more and more cars depend on the battery for ignition.

This is one of the greatest testimonials to the Willard dependability.

It's also a big reason for preserving that dependability by proper care of the battery.

For if the spark fails there's "nothing doing."

If the starter fails, you can use the crank. If a lamp burns out you can replace it. But if the battery fails it means, "get a rope."

It's our business to help you avoid that possibility and with Willard quality and Willard Service it's easy.

Stop in and we'll put you wise.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR VIRGINIA MAN MONDAY

Aaron C. Robinson interred in Walnut Ridge Cemetery—G. F. Hillig died in Springfield Hospital—Other Cass County News Notes.

Virginia, Nov. 19.—Funeral services over the remains of the late Aaron Cuthbert Robinson were held at the family home Monday morning at 9:30. Rev. C. E. French officiating. Burial was in Walnut Ridge cemetery.

Obituary.

Aaron Cuthbert Robinson was born in the state of Ohio Nov. 26, 1850, and came to Illinois in 1856. He was united in marriage to Miss Sarah E. Davis, now deceased, and to this union one child was born, Mrs. Arch Cunningham of near this city. The survivors are the daughter, three grandchildren and one brother, Alex Robinson of this city, and one sister, Mrs. Josephine Tegg of this city. The last illness was very brief, the deceased having been stricken with plural pneumonia about one week ago. Deceased was a member of the Church of Christ.

Mr. G. F. Hillig passed away at an early hour today at the Springfield hospital where he had been taken about two weeks ago. Mr. Hillig was a Civil war veteran and a highly respected and a retired business man. He is survived by his wife and four daughters and one son. The remains will arrive on the 4:50 P. M. train this afternoon and will be conveyed to the family home. The funeral arrangements are not complete.

Mr. Robert Hall of this city was the victim of a peculiar accident while in Springfield last evening. About 7 o'clock he was found by a policeman lying unconscious near 7th and Washington streets and was taken at once to St. John's hospital where it was found that he had been rendered unconscious by being presumably struck by an auto as a deep cut was found on the back of his head. Relatives in this city were notified and rushed to his bedside. He remained unconscious for a number of hours and suffered intensely during the night, but is resting easier today and will probably be brought to his home this evening. Despite his advanced age Mr. Hall is quite an active man and enjoys good health and no ill effects are feared from the accident.

The campaign in progress to raise $1,500 in this city for the Y. M. C. A. National War Work will end tonight. It is not possible at this hour to give a definite account of the amount on hand, but enthusiastic workers are busy in all parts of the city and all are confident the fund will be fully subscribed when the workers turn in the collections of the day at a meeting which will be held at 7 o'clock tonight at Peterfish, Skiles & Co. Bank.

Game Won When Ed Tomlinson Falls Across Freshies Goal—Much Gore Spilled By Participants.

Gore flowed in profusion on Illinois field yesterday when the Sophomores and Freshmen hooked up in their annual football game. In the old days the affair was a color rush and the classes some times fought for a whole day. After a few buildings had been wrecked, however, the faculty put the ban on the annual rush and the football game was substituted.

The football games are played under London prize ring rules and but little attention is paid to infractions so long as man is able to get on his feet. The game Monday was bitterly fought and finally won by the Sophs when Ed Tomlinson got the ball and started for the Freshmen's goal. Somebody tackled El in the middle of the field but he fell toward the Freshman goal and made a touchdown.

The first score was made by the Freshmen on a fluke pass. This was what the Journal's informant gave us but he might have been a Soph so it can be taken for what it is worth. The score was made in the first five minutes of the play. In the second quarter the Sophs carried the ball to the Freshies' two yard line where they were held for downs. The Sophs blocked a punt and forced the safety. The Sophs made their touchdown which gave them victory in the last quarter. Potter was referee and Whistler umpire. Hill headlineman.

WILL MAKE OLD GARMENTS INTO NEW

Department of Red Cross Organization Proposes. Helpful Line of Activity—Exhibit Is Planned.

The Red Cross cannot accept old or cast off garments for general purposes, but realizing that there is good work along the line of utilizing such garments a department of work has been organized which will be under the direction of the Red Cross society.

Sometime since the Ladies Aid society of State street church began this work of remaking old garments into new ones and at the suggestion of the Red Cross society a number of these garments have been collected and will be on view as evidence of what can be done in providing warm comfortable garments without the expenditure of money. So it will be the work of this department to furnish patterns and to superintend the remaking of old garments into new, or in some instances the making of garments from new materials.

The exhibit mentioned is being arranged by a committee appointed by the Red Cross society, including Mrs. W. T. Wilson, chairman; Mrs. J. W. Clary, Mrs. C. A. Barnes, Mrs. W. D. Doying, Mrs. C. E. Cole and these garments will be shown at the public library building Friday and Saturday of this week. All persons interested in the work are earnestly invited to call at the library and examine the garments which will be shown. Some member of the committee will be constantly present during the days mentioned to give any facts desired about the work and to supply patterns to any persons who are willing to assist.

Franklin, Nov. 19.—Emory Mann who drives a delivery wagon for the Olinger grocery was thrown from the wagon this morning when the horse became frightened at a Burlington train and had two ribs fractured. He was attended by Dr. J. B. Perkins and probably will be kept from work for several days.

BOY SHOTS SELF
WHILE HUNTING

York Bossarte Accidentally Shoots Self With Rifle While Hunting—Death is Instantaneous—Was Sophomore in High School—Coroner Rose Held Inquest.

York Bossarte, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bossarte, of 1012 South East street, was instantly killed Sunday afternoon when a rifle with which he was beating on a brush pile was accidentally discharged. The rifle was a 22 calibre Stevens rifle and the ball entered Bossarte's right breast.

The accident occurred near the home of G. W. Kennedy in the Joy Prairie neighborhood and Howard Kennedy and Donald Ransdell, classmates of Bossarte were with him at the time, the three being engaged in hunting rabbits. Bossarte's body was taken to the Kennedy home and the coroner notified and later is was brought to the undertaking parlors of Williamson & Cody. Coroner Rose empaneled a jury and the inquest was held at the Williamson & Cody parlors Monday.

The story as brought at the inquest was that Bossarte went in company with Donald Russell to the home of Howard Kennedy for a rabbit hunt. All of the boys are students in the high school. Bossarte carried a 22 calibre Stevens rifle. The boys went to a field owned by Mr. Black. Bossarte got on top of a pile of brush in a ditch to see if he could scare out a rabbit.

He began to jump up and down on the brush pile and also to punch into it with the butt of the rifle, meanwhile holding it by the barrel. Evidently the hammer became caught on a piece of brush for the weapon was unexpectedly discharged. Bossarte immediately started toward Ransdell and Kennedy. He was staggering and they asked him what the matter was and he replied, "I have shot myself," and fell to the ground.

The boys tried to carry him to the Kennedy home but were unable to do so. The Ransdell boy then ran to the house and informed Mr. Kennedy who hurried to the field. Bossarte was dead when he arrived, death evidently having instantaneous. With the assistance of Mr. Kennedy the body was carried to the house and a number of neighbors were called, among them William Hadden, who notified the authorities and Bossarte's father. Donald Ransdell, Howard Kennedy and G. W. Kennedy was heard by the jury and the story told was substantially as given above. The jury was composed of Martin Kenney, foreman; John Webb, Mike Johnson, Frank U. Correa, Charles A. Sheppard and E. G. Saye, clerk. The jury's verdict was that Bossarte came to his death by accidentally shooting himself with a 22 calibre Stevens rifle.

York Bossarte was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bossarte of 1012 South East street and was about 16 years of age. He was a member of the sophomore class in the Jacksonville high school. He was a boy well liked by classmates and had many friends. The sympathy of all will go out to his parents in their great bereavement.

The funeral will be held from Brooklyn church this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. W. W. Theobald with burial in Diamond Grove cemetery.

SWARTZKOPENSKI NOT GERMAN SPY

Man Who Lectured Here Several Months Ago Was Reported as Executed—Will Lecture at Washington University Next Monday—Rev. M. L. Pontius Received Word to That Effect Yesterday.

Many people will remember M. Swartzkopenski who spent several days in Jacksonville a few months ago and delivered a lecture at Central Christian church. M. Swartzkopenski was a most pleasing speaker and made addresses before several different bodies and made a most favorable impression on those he met. He said he was a member of the bodyguard of the Czar during his residence in Russia.

Some weeks after the gentleman left Jacksonville a report came that he had been arrested as a German spy. This created consternation among those who had met him while here. The report was that he had been taken to England and executed. Sunday Dr. M. L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church noticed an item in the St. Louis Globe Democrat to the effect that M. Swartzkopenski would deliver a lecture at Washington university in that city Monday. Dr. Pontius telephoned to St. Louis to Washington university authorities and ascertained that M. Swartzkopenski would lecture here on Monday, November 26. The news that the report of M. Swartzkopenski's arrest as a German spy is false will be received with pleasure by those who met the gentleman during his brief stay in Jacksonville.

BOGUS FOOD THIEVES

A day or two since there was an item in the Journal stating that men pretending to be government agents had appeared at various places in the vicinity of Ashland demanding in the name of the government all canned goods above a certain amount.

A gentleman in the city just remarked that such gentry had appeared several times in the suburbs of St. Louis and had gotten food from a number of families. Persons in all parts will do well to be on the lookout for such rascals.

Mrs. Parker Dies Sunday

Saturday morning she was taken suddenly ill, and while everything was done for her that medical skill could suggest, she grew steadily worse and death came Sunday morning at the hour mentioned. Deceased was born January 10, 1893, and was therefore in her twenty-fourth year at the time of her death. The bereaved husband has the sympathy of many friends in this time of sorrow. THE VISIT OF THE HOSPITAL COMMITTEE

The hospital committee already mentioned in the Journal spent Sunday very pleasantly at Ottawa the guests of Dr. Pettitt who has a tuberculosis sanitarium there and has recently erected a hospital on his grounds. The doctor most courteously received the visitors and afforded them every facility for inspecting the grounds, the new building which they had especially come to see, and all that pertained to it. A good many valuable suggestions were received and the whole trip will doubtless result in benefit to Passavant hospital in whose interest it was taken.

The reason is obvious. The great demands of the government for immense quantities of woolen materials advancing cost of manufacturing, will tend to make future purchases much higher than you can obtain them now.

The prices you pay now are based on purchases made months ago and not on present market values.
